Will the Easter programmes be different and refreshing this Holy Week?

Each year when I flick through my copy of Radio Times for the week leading up to Easter, I always want to see whether the people responsible for programme schedules have remembered Holy Week (14th-20th April this year). Have they put on some good religious programmes and films, or will it be ignored and forgotten? Will there be the usual Ben Hur or King of Kings, or will they find something different and refreshing for a change?

Far more valuable than watching a film about Jesus would, of course, be to read the book. A striking fact about the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) is that all four accounts give a larger proportion of space to the events which took place during the last week of Jesus' life, than they do to the rest of his life and teaching. The last week of Jesus' life before the crucifixion begins with his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, which we commemorate each year on Palm Sunday.

Like the road to Jerusalem with its high and low points, so Jesus had to face the highs and lows of people's different responses to him. There were the highs of the welcome and the praises of his disciples and the people. But Jesus also faced the lows of rejection and death on the cross. Only after the cross came the victory of the resurrection and the true honour and praise which belong to him.

Jerusalem would have been full of people from far and near – so there would have been some folk who had never met Jesus and didn't know anything about him. When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?" The crowds answered, "This Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee." If you have time during the season of Lent, Holy Week and Easter, why not have a go at reading one of the Gospels from start to finish? You'll find them full of refreshing surprises as each author explains in their own way who Jesus is.

So what is this?

You'll see from the next page that we make quite a bit about Easter at St. Paul's - some people might say we live in church! And before you think we have nothing to do with eggs or bunnies we enjoy that part too. Indeed many of the 'things' we associate with Easter have a Christian meaning. I remember complaining to my Dad that my egg had no chocolates in it - he told me the egg was empty because that's what Jesus' tomb was like!

So just why do we make so much of 'Easter'? Why do we celebrate something named after 'Eostre' the pre-Christian goddess of Spring? Why might it come as a shock that it's more important to us than Christmas? Yes - it really is! And why do we spend forty days and nights preparing for it?

Let's start with that one - the forty days and nights of Lent - a shortening of another old English word which identified the 'lengthening' of the days in Spring. When we think of 'Lent' it's usually to do with giving up something like chocolate. Traditionally the season is closely linked with 'fasting' - eating simply and only as much as necessary, and living simply without other 'luxuries'. But it's not so we feel good about ourselves - it's to remind us more to the 'spiritual' aspect of life - to encourage us to spend more time thinking about our relationship with God. Our Lent Course on Thursday evenings will be helping us to think more about this and everyone is welcome - no 'Christian experience necessary'! And on Friday lunchtimes we'll be holding simple Lenten Lunches - no charge - again, all welcome.

So why is 'Easter' more important to us than Christmas?

The simple answer is that without Easter Christmas would be nothing more than the celebration of the birth of a baby some two thousand years ago. It's Easter which makes sense of everything which has gone before. Easter is when everything comes together - all the other events in the life of Jesus - and God's purpose since the beginning.

Easter' all about?

On the Sunday before Easter we'll be remembering Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. People were expecting a King who would drive out the Romans - he would be 'the Messiah'. So when this Jesus who had been causing such a stir came to Jerusalem for the Passover they all turned out to welcome him in the hope he would be that Messiah. They broke out the palm tree branches because they stood for goodness and victory. True to form Jesus caused questions because he rode on a young donkey rather than a warhorse!

The week progressed. Jesus went to the Temple and upset 'the system' by overturning the currency-exchange tables and setting the animal sacrifices free. That didn't do his popularity with the authorities much good! As the week went on the Jewish authorities had enough and began to plan his downfall. Jesus knew this and on the Thursday evening before Passover he and they got together to eat the symbolic meal we call 'The Lord's Supper' or 'Holy Communion'. We'll meet to remember this on what we know as 'Maundy Thursday' evening.

'Good Friday' followed and Jesus was crucified. For us this is the second most important event in the history of the world. We believe Jesus died so that our sins can be forgiven - so we can be with God again.

And then comes 'Easter Sunday' - the most important day in the history of the world! Jesus rose from the dead and proved he was indeed God. We will celebrate with great joy - and probably chocolate Easter Eggs! Join us - or email us - to find out more!

St Paul's Toilet Fund

We need your help

At the moment we have no toilets in the church building - the nearest are at the bottom of the churchyard in the church hall. This is very inconvenient for baptisms, weddings, funerals, our other church Services and social activities beneficial to the local community.

So we're planning to have two toilet cubicles, one fully accessible for mobility impaired users, installed in church at a cost of around £80,000 - costing this much largely because the church building hasn't got a sewer pipe outlet and the nearest connection for one to be laid is at the church hall.

How you can help us

1. make a Bank Transfer donation to Barclays, Woodford Broadway Branch sort code 20-52-74 account no. 10775215
2. put your donation in a blue gift-aid envelope available in church and mark it 'Toilet' (cheques payable to ST. PAUL'S PCC)
3. contact St. Paul's Treasurer Len Stevens

St Paul's Mothers' Union

Hello, I am Len and I'm the new leader of the Mothers' Union! I know - thirty years ago it was women priests and now it's men leading the MU! What is the church about?

Seriously 'though, many of you will know that Marrianne, my wife, died last October from a brain tumour and she was our MU leader for over twenty years. She loved her role in MU and introduced, amongst other things, our commitment to the Kenyan Feeding Programme which has, since the year 2000, provided over HALF A MILLION meals to street children.

We have 23 members of MU in our church branch and we are committed to keeping Marrianne's legacy, and the MU, going in our parish. We do it because we believe in the aims of the Mothers' Union which is the advancement of the Christian religion in the sphere of marriage and family life.

Mothers' Union is an ungainly name but members in developing countries (and there are 450,000 in Kenya alone!) asked for it to remain since it empowers women within their own countries and cultures – one does not have to be a woman, a mother, a parent, or married to belong to MU – it is open to anyone who is baptised and believes in our aim – see above.

Our meetings are on the first Tuesday of each month, except August, usually in the evening and you are most welcome to come as our guest to hear interesting speakers, share in social time over tea and biscuits and enjoy our times of quiet reflection and worship.

You may eventually be invited to consider membership but it may be well for us to wait for God to speak to you about that!

We want to see our branch thrive and grow. Please take time to read the items on the Mothers' Union board just inside the church door, (where the welcomers usually stand) or for more encouragement and information please talk to myself or any of our committee members or members – all of whom will be pleased to chat MU!

Len Stevens, BRANCH LEADER.
