Holidays from Hell!

How do you manage to arrange a family holiday if one likes the countryside while the other prefers the sea? What do you do when one likes cities and sightseeing and the other likes a quiet stroll and a drink by the pool? Perhaps, in the words of an old song: "And so rather than do either, you do something else that neither likes at all!"

If you've ever seen the TV programme called Holidays from Hell, you'll be aware of all the things which could go wrong during a journey to your dream destination: losing your luggage; having your holiday ruined by poor weather; being delayed by transport problems; a diversion to a different destination; or arriving to find that they haven't yet finished building your hotel!

Apart from that last problem, all those things happened to St. Paul on his journey to Rome, as you can read in Acts chapters 27 and 28 – although he was going off to a trial rather than a pleasure trip. He was travelling with his friend Luke, who wrote the book of Acts.

Imagine the postcard Luke might have written:

"Surprise! Have been diverted to Malta following a shipwreck. Lost our luggage. Weather cold and wet; hotel unavailable. Paul got bitten by a snake but is okay. Wish you were here."

Now that the holiday season is here, some folk really need the July/August period to cease from the usual round of activities and to take a rest; others are disappointed when everything seems to close down. Hopefully, this summer folk can enjoy the best of both worlds – a chance to take a break from many of the regular activities and also a chance to do something different.

As members of God's family, we learn to live with and celebrate our different characters, tastes and preferences in our journey together. Our different gifts and personalities are meant to enrich the life of the church and the wider community; they help us to express ourselves in worship and service. We have much to learn from one another, and we have many opportunities to try things which are new or different. Happy holidays!

St. Paul's Church offering rest and quiet in a busy world

We're all familiar with today's pace of life — our 24/7 existence.

We know that stress can be devastating.

We feel pressure to achieve in all walks of life.

What can we do?

At the end of each month take a little while out.

St. Paul's Church will be open for you - to think or pray quietly, or to talk with someone should you want to. Nobody will pressure you in any way.

No Christian belief is necessary - you may be a prayer-resistant atheist but carving meditative spaces into the day certainly has a soothing effect!

Light refreshments will be available, and there will be reading material to help you think or pray should you want to use it.

And you may take as long or as little time as you wish.

We look forward to welcoming you from September onwards.

10:00-12:30

on the last Saturday of every month

St Paul's Toilet Fund

We need your help .....

At the moment we have no toilets in the church building - the nearest are at the bottom of the churchyard in the church hall. This is very inconvenient for baptisms, weddings, funerals, our other church Services and social activities beneficial to the local community.

So we're planning to have two toilet cubicles, one fully accessible for mobility impaired users, installed in church at a cost of around £80,000 - costing this much largely because the church building hasn't got a sewer pipe outlet and the nearest connection for one to be laid is at the church hall.

How you can help us .....

1. make a Bank Transfer donation to Barclays, Woodford Broadway Branch sort code 20-52-74 account no. 10775215
2. put your donation in a blue gift-aid envelope available in church and mark it 'Toilet' (cheques payable to ST. PAUL'S PCC)
3. contact St. Paul's Treasurer Len Stevens
Lenstevens9@aol.com for further information.

The joys of British summer!

Bert was sitting lazily, soaking up the sun when Ethel walked right up to him – the shade it spoiled his fun! “You can’t sit there all day” she said, “there’s stuff we have to do.” Bert smiled and thought, “O.K dear wife – I’m sure I love you too!” The weather it was beautiful – Bert thought that ‘stuff’ could wait – the sun would very soon be gone – the British summer’s fate! In what we Brits call ‘summer’ the sun it comes and goes and like as not forget the broly and the rain it soon will flow!

We Brits don’t have a climate – we simply have our weather – whether it will rain or whether rain just harder! But Ethel was insistent – the grass had grown too long and the flowerbeds were growing weeds – it all was very wrong! Bert smiled and walked up to his shed – his place of quiet retreat where he could find some peace and quiet – that was quite a feat! But not today – he had to mow, and extricate those weeds so he found the mower and the hoe to meet dear Ethel’s needs.

But minutes later – guess what happened? The heavens they opened wide, the rain it fell and Bert got wet – he quickly rushed inside his shed to shelter from the rain. He shouted out with all his might, ‘Dear Lord you know I’m trying to help – please do Your watering at night!’ But this is summer – we know so well the trials that it brings. Escape we might to drier climes or try some other things but this is British summer and it’s always rough and smooth so we need to learn to cope with it – and sadly that’s the truth.

The British summer we know so well just wouldn’t be the same - without the ups and downs each day our lives would be so tame! But much more serious is the way our lives reflect our summer – the trials we face as days go by can rumble more than thunder. It’s days like these we need ‘the shed’ – a shelter from the storms – a place where we can catch our breath, find solace in the arms of family and friends. But sometimes they’re not strong enough – we need more strength than even they can give – our life is really rough.

It’s ‘Oh my God – what can I do?’ – often said in desperation - and He is there to listen. When we make Him our foundation we have a guide to help us – His Holy Spirit will be there and whatever the ‘weather’ brings us we can speak with Him in prayer.
